48 HOURS

01/05/13

48 HOURS: "Ransom" (9:00-10:00p) - A report on the mysterious 2008 disappearance of Robert Wiles, the son of millionaire business owner Tom Wiles, who received an e-mail ransom note demanding $750,000 for the safe return of the 26-year-old, who had been working at the family business, National Flight Services in Lakeland, Florida, an aircraft maintenance company with offices and clients worldwide. On April 3, Tom Wiles opened an e-mail from his son Robert. It was a ransom demand signed, "Group X", and asked for Tom to put $750,000 in Robert's office if he ever wanted to see his son alive again. Robert was last seen by his co-worker Stobert (Toby) Holt on April 1, 2008, and the kidnappers set a deadline of April 8th to receive the money. Tom involved the FBI with the ransom note, and when Tom arrived in Florida they set up a sting operation in Robert's office to try to find out who the kidnappers were. After monitoring a box placed in Robert's office filled with coffee that weighed the same as $750,000, days started to pass by with no one entering the room. Toby Holt, Operations Manager, was handpicked by Tom to assist the FBI in monitoring Robert's office. There were no leads in the case until agents tracked Robert's phone records to see which cell towers were used, and this lead them to subpoena the Florida Turnpike Authority to view video of toll booths on the Polk Parkway. When Tom viewed the tape, he recognized Toby Holt's car pass through a toll. In the picture Toby's right arm looks to be in a position of holding a phone, and when agents went through Holt's phone record, it showed his number was not in use while going through the tolls, piquing the FBI's interest. This is when the investigation, which had been focused on the Wiles' family and an alcoholic ex-employee, Steve Lindsey, turned solely towards Toby Holt. When agents brought Holt in for questioning they determined his whereabouts on the night of Robert's disappearance were unsubstantiated and he lied when he said he didn't have any guns in his car when they found a handgun under the hood. Moreover, Holt was cheating on his wife with at least a dozen women. The FBI called in reinforcements to help move along the case with local police and detectives, and this group discovered Holt and Robert's phones were traveling together to make for a good circumstantial case. On December 19, 2009 agents arrested Toby Holt for extortion, kidnaping, and first-degree murder. 48 HOURS MYSTERY spoke with Holt while he was in South County Jail through television cameras and monitors, and he maintained his innocence. The trial opened in January 2012 and the prosecution used phone records as evidence in addition to work e-mails, showcasing a contentious relationship between Robert and Holt as a motive. Holt's lawyer said he was taking a sip of Diet Dr. Pepper when the photo was taken of him going through the toll booth, not using a phone; he pinned everything on ex-worker Steve Lindsey. However, Steve Lindsey died of lung cancer while the case was under investigation. The jury spent four hours deliberating and the judge read, "...the defendant is guilty of manslaughter." Holt was sentenced to 30 years in prison for manslaughter and extortion. Robert's body has yet to be found. On Screen Text Graphics: Toby Holt is appealing his conviction based on insufficient evidence. Holt is currently scheduled for release in 2039. He will be 72 years old. Interviewed: Tom Wiles, Robert's father; Audra Wiles, Robert's sister; Pamela, Robert's mother; Tierney Wiles, Robert's sister; David Palmisano, Robert's friend; Jim Bucenell, FBI Special Agent; Dan Kelly, FBI Special Agent; Janie Beard, Robert's barber; Joel Valle, airplane engine repair company owner; Tommy Ray, Florida Special Agent; Cass Castillo, prosecutor; Howardene Garrett, Assistant Public Defender; Stobert (Toby) Holt, NFS worker; Beverly Holt, Toby's ex-wife. ## 48 HOURS

- 01/05/13 48 HOURS: "Shattered Dreams" (10:00-11:00p) - A report about David Ditto, a husband accused of killing his wife, Katrina Ditto and possibly drugging his children. In March 2011, David Ditto called 911 to say his wife had fallen down a flight of stairs in their Mira Mesa, California home and slammed her head on a tile floor. First responders were suspicious of Ditto's version of what happened because of the extent of Katrina's injuries and the positioning of the body. Ditto said he tried to administer CPR, which they also doubted. Katrina Ditto died two days later. The Medical Examiner ruled that Katrina was beaten and strangled; Ditto was charged with murder. Investigators discovered that the image of the couple's seemingly perfect marriage was a facade. Katrina met David while he was on a vacation in Mexico in 1993, married him and moved to the U.S. knowing little English. They had two children. She had written letters to her mother in Mexico, detailing the fact that David was very controlling and she often wondered why she had married him. She had recently tried to break free, getting a job and having control of her own money for the first time in her life. Investigators also questioned why the teenage children, asleep in the home that night, never woke up, given the number of people in the house that night. They suspected the children had been drugged. David Ditto took the stand during the trial, giving emotional testimony; however, he was found guilty. On screen text graphic: David Ditto will be eligible for parole in 2037. He will be 70 years old. To this day, Ditto insists he's innocent and has hired a new defense attorney to file an appeal. Four months before Katrina Ditto's death, David took out a life insurance policy for his family in the event of his wife's death, he would have collected $150,000. He never did. Interviewed: David Ditto; Pat Doughty and Maggie Cascio, Ditto's mother and sister; Silvia Benitez, Katrina Ditto's mother; Lisa Chandler, first responder; Jonathan Mota, co-worker of Katrina Ditto; Claudine Ruiz, San Diego prosecutor; JC Smith, San Diego homicide detective; Dr. Othon Mena, San Diego City Medical Examiner; Keith Rutman, Ditto's defense attorney; jurors Francine Foman-Maisel, Christine Ellis, Patricia Woelk. - 01/12/13 48 HOURS: "The Perfect Family" - Bernie Pyne returned home one day in May 2011 with his young daughter to find his wife Ruth in the garage, brutally beaten and stabbed to death. To outsiders, the Pyne's appeared to be an all-American family. Bernie Pyne was a successful auto engineer who, with his wife, had raised a seemingly happy family in Highland Township, a suburb of Detroit, Michigan. They had two children, the oldest, Jeffrey, was his high school's valedictorian and on his way to college. After Ruth was murdered, police learned the Pyne's were not as perfect as portrayed. The investigation immediately turned to those who lived with Ruth, and they learned Ruth had some psychiatric issues, including arguments and confrontations about taking her medications. Investigators also learned Ruth and Bernie's marriage was fractured, and Bernie had had an affair. They also found Ruth's relationship with their son, Jeffrey, was strained. Ruth's sister Linda Jarvie thought Bernie was responsible for the murder, and given his affair, Bernie understood the suspicions, but he had an ironclad alibi backed by his boss and four witnesses, ruling him out as a suspect. Five months into the investigation, Jeffrey Pyne was charged with his mother's murder. Police had circumstantial evidence against Jeffrey -- blisters on his hands, lies about gardening at his neighbor's home and his detached demeanor when authorities told him what had happened to his mother. In addition, there was no sign of Ruth being sexually assaulted and no sign of a break-in. Before the case went to the jury, Prosecutor John Skrzynski asked the judge for another option for the jurors; a charge of second-degree murder, rather than the original charge of first-degree murder. Skrzynski believed it would make it easier for the jury to convict him. Jeffrey's defense attorney, James Champion, argued against it, but the judge granted the motion. After three days of jury deliberations the verdict was announced, and Jeffrey Pyne was found guilty of second-degree murder. On Screen Text Graphics: Jeffrey Pyne will be sentenced on January 29th. Under Michigan law, he could receive as much as life in prison with parole or as little as a year. Interviewed: Greg Glover, Oakland County Det. Sgt.; Dave Hendrick, Oakland County Det. Sgt.; Bernie Pyne, father of defendant; Linda Jarvie, Ruth Pyne's sister; James Champion, defense attorney. (C: Tracy Smith - P: Liza Finley, Marc B. 01/19/13 48 HOURS: "Picture Perfect: The Trial of Jodi Arias" - An updated report on Jodi Arias, accused of murdering her boyfriend Travis Alexander in 2008. The murder was first reported on in 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Picture Perfect" (OAD: 03/07/09). In that report, Arias initially told police she knew nothing of the killing, then later blamed it on masked intruders. Now she has admitted her involvement in his murder, but claims it was in self-defense. Travis Alexander, a successful businessman and devout Mormon, was found murdered in his Mesa, Arizona home. He had been shot and then repeatedly stabbed. For a little more than a year, he had been involved with Jodi Arias, an aspiring photographer. She adopted his Mormon beliefs, which forbid premarital sex -- but they did become sexually involved. They supposedly ended their relationship when Jodi found out that Travis was interested in other women. Police investigation of the murder scene recovered a digital camera with electronically dated, sexually explicit photos Travis and Jodi had taken of themselves -- and photos of Travis during the time he was being killed or soon after. Further police investigation resulted in the arrest of Jodi Arias on charges of first-degree murder. Now, portions of her interviews with 48 HOURS from 2008 are being used in her death penalty trial by both the prosecution and the defense. Last Thursday (01/17/13), the prosecution rested. On screen text graphic: The trial of Jodie Arias is expected to conclude sometime next month. She faces the death penalty. Includes interviews with Jodi Arias; Chris and Sky Hughes, friends of Travis Alexander; Samantha and Steve Alexander, Travis' sister and brother; Travis' friends Taylor Searle, Brint Hiatt, and Aaron Mortenson; Esteban Flores, detective, Mesa Police Department; Deanna Reid, former girlfriend to Travis Alexander. #### 48 HOURS

01/26/13 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "An Officer and a Hero" (9:00-10:00p) - A report on the October 5, 2009 botched robbery and home invasion that left off-duty St. Louis Police Officer Isabella Lovadina and her then-boyfriend, firefighter Nick Koenig grievously wounded and his cousin Gina Stallis dead. Lovadina and Koenig were taking an EMT class together in October 2009 in St. Louis, Missouri, and after class one evening they went to Nick's grandmother's house to study. When Nick walked Isabella to her car at 12:30am, she placed her gun and bulletproof vest inside and went to give Nick a hug goodbye. Two males approached them with guns drawn demanding whatever they had, and when Isabella said she didn't have anything they pointed to Nick's grandmother's house and directed them to go inside. Isabella and Nick were forced to their knees in the hallway upon entry. One of the gunmen, described as wearing a red hoodie with two gold teeth, went upstairs where Ida Rask, Nick's grandmother, his Aunt Rose, his cousin Gina Stallis and her two young sons were sleeping. The gunman forced Gina to carry a large TV down the stairs and the three women were then pressured to kneel next to Nick and Isabella while the two boys were left alone. Isabella decided to lunge up against the gunman described as wearing a black hoodie and started fighting with him, while Nick fought with the other man. Rose ran out the front door and started approaching neighbor's houses for help, with no avail. Shots rung out and Isabella was struck by the man in the black hoodie five times, point blank; Nick was shot three times, and Gina suffered shots that killed her. Gina's son Sam, 9-years old at the time, called 911 and soon after police and EMT's arrived. The intruders ran away before cops arrived. Isabella and Nick were rushed to the hospital. Nick had a bullet stuck in the back of his neck, too close to the spinal cord to operate on. A short time after the robbery a man checked into the ER at Barnes Hospital across town with a gunshot wound in his hand, and the ER technician tending to him noticed his gold teeth, the red hoodie covered in blood, and told the cops immediately. Police arrived at Barnes Hospital and arrested Ledale Nathan when they identified his red hoodie, and chased the man in the black hoodie, Mario Coleman, into a park and arrested him. Police found Nick's grandmother's jewelry and a black gun tossed in the park nearby. After Isabella identified the two men they were charged with first degree murder. Nathan was 16-years old at the time of the incident but he stood trial as an adult and the jury found him guilty. Coleman's trial was next and he was also found guilty of murder. Rose Whitrock has taken custody of her grandchildren. Two and a half years after the incident Nick was in a car accident and soon after he coughed up the bullet that was lodged in his cervical spine. Isabella retired from the Police Department and at her final roll call Mayor Francis G. Slay of St. Louis proclaimed February 6, 2012 as Police Officer Isabella Lovadina day. On Screen Text Graphics: Mario Coleman and Ledale Nathan Jr. were sentenced to life without the possibility of parole. Nick hopes to one day finish the class he started and become an EMT. On screen text graphic for the 01/26/13 rebroadcast: Mario Coleman and Ledale Nathan Junior were sentenced to life without the possibility of parole. Isabella Lovadina recently found a new calling. She now works as victim's court advocate in St. Louis. Interviewed: Isabella Lovadina, victim; Nick Koenig, victim; Rose Whitrock, Nick's aunt, victim; Ida Rask, Nick's grandmother, victim; Sgt. ## 48 HOURS

01/26/13 48 HOURS: "Crazy Love" (10:00-11:00p) - A report on the investigation into the 2009 murder of millionaire Ben Novack, Jr. in Rye Brook, New York. Novack was the son of Bernice and Benjamin Novack, Sr., who once owned the famed Miami hotspot, The Fontainebleau Hotel, where the rich and famous came to stay in the 1960s. When the family lost their fortune and the hotel in the 70's, Benji was inspired to start his own business planning conferences for corporate clients, which earned him millions. Friends described him as a brat who ruled his empire by fear and who had a lot of enemies. Police suspected his wife Nancy, but did not have enough evidence to charge her; then they received a letter, in Spanish, which stated that Nancy Novack and her brother Cristobal Veliz were responsible for the crime. Police believed that Veliz had hired two men, Alejandro Garcia and Joel Gonzalez to kill Benji Novack. After arresting the two, Gonzalez implicated Novack and Veliz, along with Garcia. They were arrested on murder charges. A year later, reporter Julie Brown began looking into the circumstances of Bernice Novack's death, said to be from a fall. Convinced she had discovered a murder, she took her findings to the Fort Lauderdale police department. And as investigators were making a deal with Alejandro Garcia to testify against Nancy and Cristobal, he revealed he had also been hired to attack Bernice. Novack and Veliz were once again charged with murder. The motive: Nancy Novack knew Benji was having an affair and the pre-nuptial agreement only guaranteed her $65,000 in the event of a divorce. She had to kill Benji and his mother to get all the money. On screen text graphic: Nancy Novack and her brother Cristobal Veliz were sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole. Detective Alison Carpentier retired from Westchester County Police after the arrests. Ben Novack's fortune is still tied up in a Florida probate court. Interviewed: Joe Mathews, Miami Beach homicide detective; Westchester County (NY) Detective Alison Carpentier;

48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "The Stranger You Know" (8:00-9:00p) - a report about Marti Hill, who was savagely beaten in her Prairie Village, Kansas home -- and her attacker, who refuses to say why. Hill did not show up for work one day in September 2010, and her co-workers grew concerned when she did not answer texts or phone calls. Police were summoned after Hill's boss drove to her home and found her car still in the driveway. She was found by police, at the bottom of the basement steps, barely breathing and covered in blood. Believing she was dying, Prairie Village Police Officer Bill Baldwin tried to coax out of her who was behind the vicious attack. Doctors were not sure that she would survive; she was beaten and her throat slashed open. They spent hours treating her. Police found out that Marti was a workaholic, and if she was not working, she was at home. Her ex-husband was ruled out as a suspect. Hill's mother alerted police towards Brian Pennington, a construction worker whom both she and Marti had hired to do work. Police questioned him and became suspicious, but needed to hear Marti's side of the story. They soon learned she was recovering and able to talk to police. She confirmed to police that Brian Pennington had attacked her; he was arrested for attempted first-degree murder. Frustrating to police was the fact that Pennington apparently had absolutely no motive. However, they found that he had a record of over sixty contacts with law enforcement officers, including several domestic violence incidents involving women. During the preliminary hearing, Pennington eventually agreed to a plea deal; the only issue would be how long he would be held in the Kansas State prison system. It took months, but finally a twenty-eight-and-a-half year prison sentence was agreed upon. To this day, no one knows why Pennington attacked Marti Hill. Onscreen text graphic: We wrote to Brian Pennington to ask why he attacked Marti Hill. He did not respond. Marti has created a website to help women recover from traumatic events. Interviewed: Marti Hill; Tom Mai, Marti's boss; co-workers Stephanie Scheibler, Jan Schul; Dr. Harry Wilkins III, trauma surgeon; Prairie Village Police Officer Bill Baldwin; Prairie Village Police Detectives Luke Roth and Jason Wakefield; Shirley Roth, Marti's mother; Mackenzie Hill, Marti's daughter; Cami Gill and Monica Gill, Marti's sisters; Dr. Kim Poecker; Prosecutor Vanessa Riebli. 48 HOURS: "Desperate Measures" - a report about a wealthy married couple, Dennis and Merna Koula, who were found shot dead in their Wisconsin home, and the questions that arose surrounding the circumstances of their May 2010 murder. Though elderly, both continued to work, Dennis at a pharmacy and Merna as a teacher, even after Dennis sold his car dealership and the chain of pharmacies he owned. Eric Koula and his sister, Cindy Cowell, each with families of their own, were close to their parents. Both received money from their wealthy father: Eric received hundreds of thousands of dollars to start a career as a day trader, but Cindy received less compared to her brother. At first, police believed that the couple was targeted for assassination. Days later, police received their first clue: neighbor Steve Burgess, the president of a local bank, had received death threats. The police initially suspected a case of mistaken identity when, after checking an Internet map site, the Koulas' house was identified as the Burgess residence. A timeline was established, and a time of death was determined from the last keystroke Merna Koula made on her computer. Police kept this information a secret. The lead regarding possible mistaken identity turned into a dead end and attention turned to the Koula children. Cindy Cowell and her husband had alibis. Then Eric Koula claimed to have received a shocking

note in the mail saying “fixed you”. Following protocol, police examined bank records and discovered that Eric Koula had received a check from his father and had cashed it after their deaths. Investigators started to take a closer look at Eric’s entire story. They discovered that Eric was in financial trouble. Helen Van Roo, a co-worker of Dennis, told police that Dennis had told her that he was going to stop giving his children money. Eric Koula became the target of the investigation and was eventually arrested and charged with two counts of first-degree intentional homicide. In June 2012, the trial began. Eric Koula was found guilty of murdering his parents and the additional charge of forging his father’s name on a check. Onscreen Text Graphic: Eric Koula received nothing from his parents’ estate. His children have filed suit to claim a portion of the money that should have been their father’s. Interviewed: Eric Koula and Cindy Cowell, the Koula children; John Christophersen, former special agent, Wisconsin Department of Justice; Christine Koula, Eric’s wife and Dexter Koula, Eric’s son; Helen Van Roo, Dennis Koula’s co-worker; Tim Gruenke, prosecutor; Gary Freyberg, co-prosecutor; Jim Koby, lead defense attorney; Keith Belzer, defense attorney. #### 48 HOURS (continued)

02/16/13 48 HOURS: “Honor and Dishonor” - a report on Sgt. Brent Burke, who was court-martialled for the 2007 murders of Tracy Burke, his estranged wife and his former mother-in-law, Karen Comer. Four civilian trials, with no physical evidence, had already led to three mistrials and a hung jury; but the military decided to move forward with action under the uniform code of military justice. Tracy Burke and Karen Comer were discovered shot to death in Comer’s Rineyville, Kentucky home. When it was discovered that Tracy was in the process of going through a divorce, Sgt. Brent Burke was taken into custody and booked for murder. There was little physical evidence and no murder weapon, but during an interview, Eion Burke, a young child of four, said that Sgt. Burke was the killer. When charges were dropped and he was released from jail, Kentucky State Police spoke to the Army and they came to the same conclusion: a case for murder, this time to be tried by the Army’s Judge Advocate General’s Corps (JAG) because Burke on active duty at Fort Campbell when the crimes were committed. He would face a court martial trial which is very different from a civilian court trial -- there is always a verdict and never a hung jury. The trial commenced and the JAG prosecution team was able to present physical evidence -- a tiny piece of glass taken off of Burke’s coat, which was similar to the shattered glass door at the crime scene. The panel decided that Sgt. Burke was guilty and that he would serve a life sentence without parole. He would also be dishonorably discharged and stripped of his rank. Onscreen text graphic: Tracy Burke’s children visit each other regularly. According to military law, Brent Burke will get an automatic appeal. Interviewed: JAG prosecution team members: Lt. Colonel Matthew Calarco, Major Sondra Smith, Captain Janae Lepir; U.S. Army Defense Attorney Nathan Brown; JAG attorney Major Rebecca Kliem; Kentucky State Police Detective Larry Walker; Kentucky State Police Investigator Mark Gillingham; Tracy Burke’s father and step-mother David and Gractia Wilburn; Tracy Burke’s sister-in-law Hillary Wilburn; defense attorneys Chris Davenport and David Broderick; Brent Burke’s parents Stan and Irene Burke; Master Sergeant Michelle Kerstetter, Karen Comer’s daughter. 02/23/13 48 HOURS: “The Accuser” (9:00-10:00p) - a followup to “Dream Killer” (OAD: 02/18/06) and “The Lost Night” (OAD: 03/26/11). Correspondent Erin Moriarty and the 48 HOURS team have been investigating the murder of sports editor Kent Heitholt and the bizarre circumstances that have put Ryan Ferguson in prison for the crime. Heitholt was found bludgeoned and strangled in 2001. Two years later, police got a tip that Charles Erickson had told a friend that he and Ryan Ferguson may have committed the crime because they were out drinking the night of the murder and had decided to rob someone, but his memory of the incident was foggy. Based on Erickson's confession, both were arrested and tried for murder. During the trial, Erickson offered key details in his testimony that were not part of his initial confession. Both were found guilty. Ryan Ferguson received a forty year sentence. Ferguson's father's unceasing efforts to prove his son's innocence led to the discovery of evidence contradicting Erickson's story. Then Jerry Trump, a trial witness, recanted his testimony. With the assistance of attorney Kathleen Zellner, a new hearing was secured. Then Erickson's story changed again. He agreed to speak exclusively to 48 HOURS to reveal new details about how his confession put both men in prison. He said he has lied before and exonerated Ryan Ferguson, but his new version of the story also had its problems. Jerry Trump said he felt pressured to lie during the trial and was haunted by his testimony. The appeal commenced. It was denied; the judge sided with the Missouri attorney general and said that Erickson was far more credible seven years ago than he is today. The conviction stands. On screen text graphic: Kathleen Zellner has appealed this latest decision. It's Ryan Ferguson's thirteenth attempt to overturn his conviction. Interviewed: Ryan Ferguson; his father, Bill Ferguson; the accused Chuck Erickson; sports writer Michael Boyd; janitor/witness Shawna Ornt; attorney Kathleen Zellner; forensic pathologist Dr. Larry Blum.
